Chapter Nine

Smoke from a huge furnace...

People will seek death...

Job 3:21

“They wait for death and it comes not;
they search for it rather than for hidden treasure.”

Locusts... (Joel 2)

Blow the trumpet in Zion, sound the alarm on my holy mountain! Let all who dwell in the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming; Yes, it is near, a day of darkness and of gloom, a day of clouds and somberness! Like dawn spreading over the mountains, a people numerous and mighty! Their like has not been from of old, nor will it be after them, even to the years of distant generations...

Locusts... (Joel 2)

...Before them a fire devours, and after them a flame enkindles; Like the garden of Eden is the land before them, and after them a desert waste; from them there is no escape. Their appearance is that of horses; like steeds they run. As with the rumble of chariots they leap on the mountaintops; As with the crackling of a fiery flame devouring stubble; Like a mighty people arrayed for battle...

Locusts... (Joel 2)

...Before them peoples are in torment, every face blanches. Like warriors they run, like soldiers they scale the wall;
They advance, each in his own lane,
without swerving from their paths. No one crowds another, each advances in his own track; Though they fall into the ditches, they are not checked. They assault the city, they run upon the wall, they climb into the houses; In at the windows they come like thieves...

Locusts... (Joel 2)

...Before them the earth trembles, the heavens shake; The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withhold their brightness. The LORD raises his voice at the head of his army; For immense indeed is his camp, yes, mighty, and it does his bidding. For great is the day of the LORD, and exceedingly terrible; who can bear it?

ALIVE!
